

WILD ART WEEK AT ST PETROCK'S 22ND-26TH MARCH

DAY	All sessions run 2-5pm	ORGANISATION RUNNING SESSION	EVENT	DESCRIPTION
MONDAY 22 ND		SPACE X	SOUND ART AND SOUND POETRY	Audio Mash Up SpaceX presents an afternoon of experimental sound-art and poetry led by the Bard of Exeter, Liv Torc and artist Helen Pritchard. This is a fantastic opportunity to try something new and to create your own poetic/audio masterpiece!
TUESDAY 23 RD		EXETER COLLEGE	CERAMICS	During the session we will look at the “wilder” examples of figurative sculpture at St. Petrock’s and in the area of Cathedral Green. We will create masks and figures based on the gargoyles and other sculptures we see.
WEDNESDAY 24 TH		DOUBLE ELEPHANT WITH MAGIC CARPET	PRINT WORKSHOP	We’ll be using our portable presses to create monoprints of found materials - using colourful inks to experiment with textures and shapes. Participants are welcome to bring things along that they want to try and print - needs to be fairly flat to fit through the press!
THURSDAY 25 TH	  	ROYAL ALBERT MEMORIAL MUSEUM	PATTERNS OF THE PAST	People have always been inspired to make patterns from Nature. This time we will use natural materials (leaves, sticks, stones and berries) to create patterns inspired by some of the objects in the Museum’s collection.
FRIDAY 26 TH		THE PHOENIX	ANIMATION	Guided by two animators you’ll have the chance to try your hand at bringing your characters to life through the magic of animation

ATTENDANCE IS BY REFERRAL ONLY. PLEASE SPEAK TO YOUR KEY/SUPPORT/PROJECT/CASE WORKER OR O.T. TO RESERVE A PLACE ON ALL, SOME OR JUST ONE OF THE DAYS. Contact: keith@stpetrocks.org.uk
